

Continuing Professional Development Seminar Series

The Microbiome and the Gut Brain Axis

Saturday, 23 March 2019, 10.00 am to 4.30 pm at
Mary Ward House, Lethaby Room, 5-7 Tavistock Place, London WC1H 9SN

PROGRAMME

9.30 am	Registration & Coffee
10.00 am	Introduction to the morning session Chair: Dr Chris Etheridge.
10.05 am	Simon Mills: Herbal Levers on the Microbiome.
10.55 am	Dr Enitan Ogundipe: RCT of Perinatal Nutrition, Newborn Microbiota and the Brain.
11.40 am	COFFEE BREAK
12.00 am	Dr Jessica Braid: The Microbiome in Practice, Pt 1.
12.30 am	Kath Antonis: Improving Neurological Capacity with Dietary Change – Case History.
12.45 pm	Discussion
1.00 pm	LUNCH
2.00 pm	Introduction to the afternoon session Chair: Dr Chris Etheridge.
2.05 pm	Dr Jessica Braid: The Microbiome in Practice, Pt 2.
2.35 pm	Dr Phil Deakin: Presenting Parkinson's Disease: Mapping Pathways between the Gut & the Brain.
3.05 pm	TEA
3.30 pm	Sophie Lamb: Stress, Endotoxin and Sugar.
4.00 pm	Alex Laird: Feeding the Microbiome.
4.15 pm	Discussion
4.30 pm	FINISH

Fees (lunch included) EHTPA [CPP] Members/NIMH/BHMA Members £70.00

Non-EHTPA Members £90.00

CPP Students £25.00 (or £10 without lunch).

Non-CPP Students £45.00 (or £30 without lunch).

New Practitioners [1st year only - Year qualified:] £60.00.

Attendance at this event will attract 4 CPP/CPD credits. CPP Members: On the day, please obtain an authorised signature to the reverse of your ticket.

To book please go to: thecpp.uk/event/cpp-spring-seminar-2019/, or send a cheque payable to College of Practitioners of Phytotherapy, to:
Pam Bull, CPP, Oak Glade, 9 Hythe Close, Polegate, East Sussex, BN26 6LQ.

Tel: 01323 484353. 10 am – 5 pm.

Email: pamela.bull@btopenworld.com www.thecpp.uk [Card facilities are available]